GUSTON.

Forest Stith is visiting relatives in Louisville.

Genie Smith, of Stony Point, was in town Friday afternoon.

Tommy Conniff is visiting relatives in Louisville and Lebanon.

Mrs. J. R. Baskett, who has been very sick for some time is improving.

They say we are to have a brand new store in town when spring opens.

Geo. Smith was the guest of Mrs. Mattie L. Brocar Monday evening.

Miss Mollie Jarboe, of Lebanon, Ky., is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. E. Conniff.

Miss Clara Adkinson was the guest of Mrs. Mattie L. Brocar Thursday evening.

Miss Eliza Ewell, of Owensboro, is visiting her cousin, Miss Eva Carrigan, near here.

Mrs. Maggie Ditto, who has been very sick at the home of her father for several weeks, is improving.

Mrs. Robt. Hardaway and little son, Wallace, of Nashville, Ill., are visiting relatives and friends near here.

Miss Hasher, who has been in Louisville for several weeks, returned Thursday en route to her home near Paynesville.

Erskine Munford and sister, Miss Kittie, were guests of Miss Rose Z. Morris and sister, Mrs. Mattie L. Brocar one evening last week.

Wm. Conniff, of Louisville, came down Monday morning to accompany his brother, T. E. Conniff to Lebanon, Ky., with the remains of the latter's infant daughter.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Conniff was gladdened Saturday Feb. 2, by the arrival of a little daughter, but the rejoicing was soon changed into sadness by the death of the little one Monday, Feb. 4. The little blossom was too tender for earth and the angel of death plucked it for the garden of Paradise.

C. C. Smith, our popular and genial hotel man, has sold his property to Mr. Cook, of Ouster. Our citizens regret to lose so good a citizen as "Lum," as he is familiarly called. He, with his estimable wife, has managed the Guston Hotel in such a manner as to make patrons feel at home. No village hotel anywhere could spread a more bountiful or tempting table nor offer to the weary traveler better accommodations. They have the best of many friends, who bespeak for them success wherever they may go.

Miss Eva Carrigan entertained at tea Friday the following ladies and gentlemen: Misses Eliza Yewell, Owensboro, Clara Adkinson and Rose Z. Morris and Mrs. Mattie L. Brocar, Louisville; Messrs. Hugh Hardaway, Geo. Smith, Nick Tilford, Harry Bell, R. J. Patterson and S. K. Carrigan. Tea was served in the hostess' inimitable manner to the evident enjoyment of the guests. Music on the piano, guitar, harp, accordion and bones was an enjoyable feature of the evening.

PAYNESVILLE.

Prayer meeting at the Baptist church every Sunday.

Mr. Niphe Schmit called on Miss Daisy Payne last Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Brown and family visited Richard Brown, Jr., last Saturday and Sunday.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Miss Bertie Payne and also Mr. Charley Hayden of Rhodelia.

The young folks are contemplating a grand time at the dance at Mr. Eliza Arnold's next Thursday.

WE ARE WONDER.

Why John was out so late Sunday night.

Why E. B. is going to Oklahoma so soon.

Why Jeff didn't want to dance the other Wednesday.

Why Daisy gets so many letters.

Why G. H. was out so early Sunday hunting a barber.

Why Clarence Campbell makes such lengthy visits to his girl.

When the "Wedding Bells" will cease ringing.

How M. F. felt Sunday night.

Mr. J. L. Flaherty is repairing the dwelling of J. E. Eliza Arnold.

Oh! what can be the attraction a Concordia for Mr. Clarence Arnold. Never mind, we'll find out Thursday.

There will be a grand ball at Concordia the 22. A good time for all is expected.

Mrs. Rhoda Thornberry and daughter, Miss Lee, visited Mr. Alex. Hendry's family last week.

Miss Agnes Spink, of Concordia, is expected in our midst soon.

Mr. Connors is no better at this writing.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A Big Crowd Present on the Opening Day.

A Two weeks Term Ahead. Some Of The Big Cases

ON THE TRIAL DOCKET.

The February term of Circuit Court convened at Hardinsburg Monday last. Notwithstanding the unpleasant day a good many people turned out. The old farmers whom the News man met declared that it was the worst winter so far on record. They felt though that it would be followed by an early spring, that the coming season would show up good crops and everybody would be better by it.

Judge McBeath and Commonwealth's Attorney Weed Chief were on hand promptly to begin the business of the Court.

The grand jury was empaneled as follows: D. S. Richardson, Foreman, Henry C. Gibson, Wm. L. Beauchamp, Julius Duttschke, Ezra Lampton, George Gilbert, Joe Jarrett, Silas Miller, W. E. Board, Ellis D. Cannon, L. H. Adkinson and J. E. Chapin.

Besides the Commonwealth's business, which will consume the greater part of this week, there is a large civil docket, and it will take the whole of two weeks to dispose of them.

There are several parties in jail, all of whom may get a trial at this term. They are Joe Gray, colored, shooting his wife, Pat Smith, house-breaking; Monroe Wilho, shooting at another; John Robertson, stabbing another; Sol Jolly, larceny.

The civil docket is quite large and there are a number of cases that stand for trial.

The case of Mrs. Meador against the Hardinsburg and Cloverport Turnpike Company for $5000 is one of them.

Another case is that of G. W. Bishoff against the Acme Brick Company, of Cloverport for $10,000 damages. Bishoff was a hand working for the company and while in their employ got hurt in some way. For their negligence he wants ten thousand dollars damages.

There are several cases against ex-sheriff J. S. Delernett and his surties, but they will probably be disposed of by demur.

Another case is that of Letitia E. Allen against Scott Cunningham for $5000 damages for slander. Another case is that of Willer Quiggins against R. L. Newsom for $5000 damages.

These are some of the big cases on hand and if they are tried the full term of the court will be taken up. There are numerous other smaller cases to be heard but they may soon be disposed of.

The visiting attorneys who are expected this week are Mr. Allen Dean, Chapeze Wathen and Geo. W. Jolly, Owensboro; J. W. Lewis, Brandenburg; D. W. Fairleigh, R. E. Woods, Thomas W. Bullitt, Louisville. All of these gentlemen have more or less business in the court and besides their social qualities are excellent and they like to spend a few days at Hardinsburg.

The members of the home bar are supposed to have plenty to do, particularly during the session of Circuit Court. The absence of Judge Allen Murray, whose death occurred since the last term will be particularly noticed by his associates at the bar. Mr. Murray occupied a table directly in front of the judge's stand and has been an active member of the bar for over twenty-five years. He was always retained in the big cases, and his terse and able arguments on legal points will be missed by those who have sat and listened to him for years passed.

A meeting of the bar will probably be held this week to pay due respect to his memory. Since the writer came to the bar some six or eight years ago, the following members have died: Judge Kincheol, J. G. Haswell, Robert Bowmer, Robert Bruner and Judge Murray. Younger members however, are taking their places.

Pulliam Captured.

Ed Pulliam, the lunatic murderer of Rev. Burgess Swope near Patesville was captured near his home Monday by Aretus Haynes, the Pellville mail-carrier. He was taken to Hawserville where he will be tried to day.

F. P. Hagood was here last Sunday and his old friends were glad to see him. Mr. Hagood has a good position on the Plant Railroad System in Alabama. His home is at Troy and his division extends from Montgomery, Ala., to Jacksonville, Florida. He says the South is in better fix than she has been since the war.

IRVINGTON.

Mr. Keys is at home for awhile.

Mr. Protheroe made a flying trip to Cloverport last Saturday.

Dr. E. M. Bewley and wife are with his parents for a short visit.

Mr. Robt. Herndon's genial face beamed upon the "fair ones" at church Sunday.

Good friends it was not necessary for Miss Ru to have a "chaperone" this time.

Mrs. W. J. Piggott with little ones is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ken Wathen at Mt. Merino.

Irvington Milling Company received last week two car loads of corn from Skillman, Ky.

Mrs. McGlothlin entertained quite a number of prominent church members to dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Otto has not fully recovered from her recent illness, but is improving slowly and we hope surely.

At regular church meeting of the pastor officers and members of the Baptist church Saturday afternoon Mr. Jas. Lewis was licensed to preach.

Miss Maggie Belle Paul and Mr. Geo. Drury from Bewleyville attended church here Sunday. We always welcome the "stranger within our gates."

Miss Maggie Belle Paul and Mr. Geo. Drury from Bewleyville attended church here Sunday. We always welcome the "stranger within our gates."

Mrs. Smith, mother of Messrs. Jas. and Thos. Smith, our enterprising teamsters, returned home to-day after a week's visit to the families of her two sons.

Miss Jennie Hardin, of Brandenburg, was in our midst this week. Miss Jenn has many staunch friends who are pleased to have her among them and in the good work of the neighborhood.

We regret the severity of the weather prevented Prof. Hawes' filling his appointment on Friday as stated. An old saying, "the third time charms," will we hope prove to hold good next time.

Mr. R. R. McGlothlin walked over to town to-day. Bob says it was to warm for an overcoat. Perhaps we may be able to find a generous sized palm leaf for him by the time of the next blizzard.

Rev. Nash, editor of the Kentucky Baptist, preached on Sunday, filling Rev. W. R. Cullom's pulpit. His subject, "The Building of our Heavenly Temple," was handled in a masterly manner, evidenced much thought and contained many good points.

Rev. Cundiff, of the M. E. church South, has an appointment to preach in the Baptist church at Irvington the first Sunday in March at 3 o'clock p. m. We hope the community will show their appreciation of religious sentiment by turning out to hear him.

Mr. Jordon Owen, Munfordville, was registered at the McGlothlin House last week. Mr. Owen is Gen. Buckner's private secretary. He was formerly on the Board of Equalization. He is looking after Gen. Buckner's interest as candidate for U. S. Senator.

Master Louis Jolly has ordered from Cleveland, Ohio three pigs "O. I. C." stock at cost of $65. These hogs are of the white Chester breed and are recommended for their size and hardiness. Weighing at twenty months old 1,400 pounds. Louis is an enterprising boy and is building high hopes on this income he expects to realize from his venture.

Miss Maggie Greenwald, of "Sunrise Slope," suffered a keen disappointment by the excessive cold of Thursday night in the loss of about eighty geraniums, besides other plants. All looked thrifty and green—some were in bloom with flattering prospects of an abundant bloom in the near future, but alas, for human hopes their glory has departed leaving Miss Maggie sighing for her departed treasures.

Morris Jolly is an enthusiastic amateur stamp collector. He has quite an interesting collection embracing nearly seventy-five different countries and the various denominations of each. He has them arranged very conveniently on regular stamp album, and by the accumulation of the stamps has gained a fund of information which is very valuable to him, of which he may justly be proud. Anyone having rare stamps to sell will confer a favor on Morris by addressing him at Irvington.

The County Surveyor, R. M. Jolly and Mr. Akers appointed viewers of the new road projected from Merino neighborhood to Irvington were out part of last Thursday attending to the discharge of their duties. It was a very bitter day and as a consequence of the exposure, Mr. Jolly was confined to the house a portion of the remainder of the week. However, by timely remedies, he was off perhaps a serious attack. We hope the others fared better than Mr. Jolly from their exposure.

Miss B. Ada Drury came down from Bewleyville Monday and opened her private school at Irvington Tuesday a. m. It has been a long cherished desire on the part of some of the patrons of the district to secure Miss Ada as a teacher at Irvington. Now that the desire is attained let each parent and patron feel the good work has begun and that the responsibility of a successful school depends on each individual parent as much as on the teacher. Let us not fold our hands idly and expect our teacher to do all the work, but show by our co-operation that we will do our duty and feel sure in the discharge of ours—hers will follow easily and satisfactorily.

Some folks will think that Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is no better than the common cough remedies until they try it. Then they will know for themselves that it's the best on earth. For sale by Short & Haynes, Cloverport; Dr. R. H. McMullin, McDaniels; M. Meyer & Co., Buras; Geo. Heyser, Constantine; A. Taylor, Rosetta; Drury, Bennett & Co., Bewleyville, Ky.; Jno. P. Nichols, Garfield, Ky.; A. R. Morris, Big Spring, Ky.

Miss Nora Greer is spending the winter in Owensboro with her uncle.

Mr. Shelby Triplett did not like the price of tobacco on his return from the city.

C. W. Kasey is one of the petit jurors for the court held at Hardinsburg this week.

Miss Mattie Slaton is visiting friends and relatives in New Albany, Ind., and vicinity.

Mr. Wm. Crosby, who has been visiting relatives in our town, returned to his Louisville home Sunday.

Erle Head will remain with his brother, Dent this year on the farm. Dent retains Mr. and Mrs. Hunts Mercer as house-keepers.

Mr. John Kasey, while in Louisville last week, slipped on the ice in front of the Pickett Warehouse and sprained his wrist. While not serious the hurt was very painful.

Mr. Clarence Basham has presented his wife with a new $300 cooking range, Home Comfort. It is said to be quite superior to all other ranges ever introduced into this neighborhood.

Mr. Rice Carlton has been on a visit to his parents during the late cold spell. He left Monday to take the assistant's place in a select school at Vertrus, Hardin county. We extend our congratulations to Rice and wish him success. He is a worthy boy and deserves all the good fortune fickle fate sees fit to shower upon him.

Mr. G. T. Mercer, whose death was reported in last Thursday's Courier-Journal, was buried at this place Saturday afternoon at half past two o'clock. Mr. Mercer has a very checkered history. In his early days he was a man of considerable property. One reverse after another caused him to die a poor man. His death occurred at Lakeland hospital, twelve miles above Louisville where he was sent for treatment by the city court at Louisville. Through the kindness and charity of his niece, Mrs. Hannah Crosby, of Louisville, his remains were taken charge of by her and her husband and brought here for burial. Mr. Mercer was 71 years old and had been twice married, having one child a son, Martin Mercer by his first wife, living in Hardin county. Five children survive he and his last wife, all of whom are of age and married except his two youngest, Jas. Mercer and Miss Argent. The family have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

The residence of Mr. J. T. Mitcham owned by W. L. Tarpin, Jefferson county was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday evening. He and his wife left home after dinner Thursday to remain all night with his wife's father, Jno. Slaton about dark Mr. Otto Robinson came in Rosetta with the news that Mr. Mitcham's house was on fire and beyond saving. Several went to the scene but could do nothing. Mr. Robinson says his little daughter, Katie was out in the yard playing, saw the light and called to him to know what it meant. By the time he got there the back I was falling. Mr. Robinson married Miss Vebella Slaton during the Christmas holidays. They had just gone to house-keeping in the house lately occupied by Mr. Jeff Tarpin and were very nicely furnished. Nothing was saved but their meat and the clothes they had on. Mr. Mitcham was quite a popular young man in our community being raised here. Everybody knew him and liked him. He has the sympathy of all his friends.

A new theory in the treatment of coughs, lung and bronchial affections has been advanced by the manufacturers of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It is truly a wonderful remedy. All dealers sell it on a positive guarantee. For sale by Short & Haynes, Cloverport; Dr. R. H. McMullin, McDaniels; M. Meyer & Co., Buras; Geo. Heyser, Constantine; A. Taylor, Rosetta; Drury, Bennett & Co., Bewleyville, Ky.; W. E. Brown, Irvington, Ky.; Jno. P. Nichols, Garfield, Ky.; A. R. Morris, Big Spring, Ky.

Senator Lindsay on the Currency.

"It is evident that something must be done to relieve the Treasury. We can't go on exchanging bonds for gold, and then exchanging this gold for greenbacks and coin notes. More than one-half the gold withdrawn from the Treasury since the last bond sale has been hoarded by the banks and bankers, and not sent abroad. It is evidently expected by the people that gold will go to a premium under existing conditions, and this at no very distant day. It is not likely that all the specific recommendations of the President will meet with Congressional favor. If the greenbacks and coin notes be funded and thus withdrawn from circulation, it will be insisted that some kind of currency shall take their place, and there will be strong objections to trusting to the national banks the work of supplying and keeping up the necessary volume of currency. The silver men are not likely to be satisfied with the mere substitution of silver certificates for the smaller national bank notes. When the coin notes issued under the Sherman law of 1890 shall be retired and the silver bullion in the Treasury released from the pretended lien to secure their payment, we will have in the Treasury vaults silver bullion costing nearly $150,000,000, answering no purpose whatever. It is difficult to see why that bullion shall not then be coined and put into circulation. It is certainly cannot be held indefinitely as a dead investment, and there is no reason why it shall not be coined at once, if it is ever to be coined."
